

Chicago ALA Annual Meeting – July 2009

LITA RFID Interest Group Session

“How to develop an RFID Request for Proposal (RFP) and use it to select the supplier that best meets your library’s needs”

Developing the RFP process

- Key tools
- Developing “Functional Specifications”

Selecting the best supplier for your library

- RFP response evaluation
- Scoring responses
- Validation of compliance to specifications
- Demonstrations
- References
- Real life experience from a library example
- How-to guide or summary offered to all attendees

When:

July 11, 2009
10:30 – 12:00 noon

Where:

Palmer House
Chicago Room

Attend for a chance to WIN!

An Apple® iPod Nano®

3M